

REMARKS

As indicated in the Amendment dated October 29, 2007 the purpose of this RCE is to eliminate means plus function language in the claims. Upon review of the now allowed claims it is believed that minor amendments to the claim language should be entered to insure that the claims are so construed. Since the claim amendments are minor, the Examiner is urged to use his discretion to enter this amendment especially since the Applicant has already paid the fees for one RCE.

If the Examiner believes that personal communication will expedite prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned at (248) 641-1600.

Respectfully submitted,
